

Transforming Healthcare: FROM INSIGHTS TO IMPACTS

17th Annual Multidisciplinary Research Conference

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Professional Identity in Healthcare: A New Mindset

Nelda Godfrey, PhD, ACNS-BC, RFAAN, ANEF

Professor, Associate Dean, Innovative Partnerships & Practice, University of Kansas School of Nursing

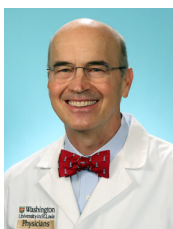

Artificial Intelligence in Biomedicine: Research, Innovation and Translation to Practice

Philip R.O. Payne, PhD, FACMI, FAMIA, FAIMBE, FIAHSI

Director, Institute for Informatics, Data Science and Biostatistics; Janet and Bernard

Becker Professor Associate Dean for Health Information and Data Science; Chief Data Scientist, WashU Medicine

FEATURED SPEAKER

Teamwork in ITIM Interprofessional Teamwork Innovation Model of Necessity

Mark V. Williams, MD, FCPMHIM

Professor and Chief of the Division of Hospital Medicine, WashU Medicine

Oct. 16, 2024

8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Check-In and breakfast, 7-8 a.m.

Eric P. Newman Education Center

Washington University Medical Campus
320 S. Euclid Ave., Saint Louis, MO 63108

Concurrent Podium Sessions

Morning

Supportive Care Strategies

Optimizing Skills and Patient Outcomes

Afternoon

Impacting Care Quality and Safety

Enhancing Care with Data and Technology

Interactive Poster Presentations
Closing Plenary Session

→ Register here or scan the QR code below
Limited space available

For more information, contact David McDonald,
David.McDonald@bjc.org.

Barnes-Jewish Hospital Center for Practice Excellence is approved as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the Midwest Multistate Division, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Barnes-Jewish Hospital

BJC HealthCare

barnesjewish.org