to investigate such matters. The University is committed to continuous improvement. Continued investigations by Human Resources and Title IX Compliance Office in collaboration with the Deans and the Chancellor remain strictly confidential.

According to the Constitution of the university, proposed sanctions such as loss of tenure are initially evaluated by an informal inquiry by the Advisory Committee on Tenure and Academic Freedom.

- The School of Medicine has established an Executive Faculty Task Force on Climate and Culture in response to concerns about the elements of culture leading to a negative climate for women and other vulnerable and marginalized members of our community. A parallel effort, to be launched on the Danforth Campus, is in the planning stages to run in parallel with the WUSM Task Force.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Questions</th>
<th>Answers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Q: Have there been salary increases to increase competitiveness?</td>
<td>A: Salaries have been increased to at least WashU minimum of $15.75/hour</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Q: Are students and post-docs supported by this childcare service and back-up care? If so, does this constrain access for faculty?</td>
<td>A: Yes, there are university subsidies for this care for students. Need to F/U on info for post-docs. Yes, there are a limited number of providers with excess need.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Q: Are the hours of care 10AM-5PM and 9AM-3PM? If so, does this not take into consideration the new university initiative for early and late classes?</td>
<td>A: We are working to increase access for extended hours with smaller staff. Students also have challenges of time coverage.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Q: Is there coverage for holidays, evenings?</td>
<td>A: No current support for these times. Individuals can work with Ms. Eberle-Mayse to identify one-on-one solutions.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Q: Childcare is a critical part of recruitment/retention of new faculty. How is this info provided?</td>
<td>A: Toolkits, resources provided with recruitment and on-boarding process, discussed idea to share info at faculty meetings</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Q: Can recruit candidates speak with Ms. Eberle-Mayse?</td>
<td></td>

Departmental Statements

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Julie Flory, Vice Chancellor for Marketing and Communications</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Presentation to the Faculty Senate Council to introduce the idea whether the university should consider establishing guidelines for statements on behalf of departments vs. as an individual.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Consider creation of framework for circumstances</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Such guidance for public statements may include:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Current events</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Political issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Other topics of importance to community/society at large</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emphasis on support of freedom of expression</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Not a restriction of speech, rather creation of guidelines to protect space for individuals to speak on behalf of themselves or units they represent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Peer institutions with guidelines in place for institution/chancellor/president</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• There are a small number have departmental/individual statements (e.g., Brown Univ)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• MIT asked faculty to endorse principles of free speech</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Next steps: sharing with key stakeholders (Exec Faculty of School of Medicine, University Council)
- Continue benchmarking
- Follow-up with Council after evaluation with other groups
- Pending feedback- draft guidelines

A: Yes- there is an institutional commitment to provision of childcare resources.

Q: Is there concern about backlash for statements? Is there guidance for protection?
A: May be explored in future with a task force. Goal may be to ultimately increase impact of this speech with guidelines of representation (self vs leader of unit/dept)

Q: What types of guidelines?
A: Will be developed pending review, referenced Brown University public statements policy:
https://policy.brown.edu/policy/public-statements

Q: Many issues can be “political” Example: Research of urban design
A: SCOTUS Dobbs decision is clearly political but there are many other issues that may have political impact.
