Welcome to the Research Gateway

Provided by the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research

The Research Gateway is a consolidated, on-line resource that provides Washington University faculty and staff access to the numerous research-related resources, tools, forms, and applications necessary to propose, perform, manage, and close research projects.*

I encourage you to submit comments and suggestions that will help us improve the functionality of this service. Please submit your ideas via email to ovcrinfo@vusm.wustl.edu

Jennifer K. Lodge, PhD
Vice Chancellor for Research

The Gateway is optimized for use with Internet Explorer and Mozilla/Firefox web browsers.

ATTENTION USERS!! The Research Gateway provides access to many secure WUSTL systems. To prevent unauthorized access, please take care to LOGOUT and CLOSE ALL BROWSER WINDOWS.

* The Research Gateway is accessible to all Washington University faculty and staff. Access to information behind the Gateway varies by user security.

What to Select

If you are taking CITI for the first time, select “Required Initial.”

If you wish to update your CITI training, you can take another track in “Required Initial” or you can select a track from “Electives.”

If you wish or need to take Good Clinical Practices, select “Good Clinical Practices.”

The screenshot shows the Research Gateway website interface. The main navigation menu on the left includes sections for 'Compliance Tools', 'Protocol Submission and Management', 'Technology and Intellectual Property', and 'Self-Service'. The central content area is divided into several categories: 'Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR)', 'Effort Reporting Principles for', 'Human Subjects Education', 'Conflicts of Interest', and 'HRMS Course Registration'. The 'Human Subjects Education' section is circled in red, and an orange arrow points to the 'Required Initial' link within it. The right sidebar features a calendar of upcoming events and a section for 'Internal and External Resources'.
