Fun with stuffed animals...

The Pandas loved bringing in their favorite stuffed animals all week. We had the Vet Prop box out to give checkups. We weighed and measured. The kids groomed their lovies by brushing and blowing their fur dry. We made a house out of a cardboard box and painted it red. We ended the week with a pajama party with a tent, flashlights and s'mores for snack.

Shapes

The children created artwork by gluing on circles and painting on triangles. The Pandas made pretzels with dough shaped as squares.

We read the books, "My Little Train" (Ichikawa), "Perfect Square" (Hall), and "Chengdu" (Saltzberg).
