SCHOOL YEAR 2017 - 2018

HALLOWEEN MEMORIES

One breezy, overcast Tuesday afternoon, the Sun Bears were transformed into the Incredible Hulk, a Knight, a Firefighter, Doc McStuffins, a Black Kitty, an Ewok, Captain America, a Power Ranger, a Princess, a Ladybug, a Pirate, a Fire Captain, a Ninja Turtle, and a Lizard. They were taught by a Cat and a Banana. We appreciate your support in making this day full of smiles!

A CAMPING WE WILL GO....

This week, Sun Bears became campers! We set up a tent in the classroom, made “Junior Park Rangers” vests, took two hikes on campus (one to the Rock Museum, a part of the Earth and Planetary Science Department; the other for a leaf hunt on the Village Quad), and capped the week with pajama day and s’mores. Outdoor activities like these prove that nature is a marvelous outdoor classroom. We saw Sun Bears using their verbal and critical thinking skills as they compared and contrasted size, color and shape of leaves. And they just had a whole lot of fun on WUSTL’s beautiful campus. We will continue our outdoor investigations next week with a unit on trees and leaves.

*Until next time,
Miss Katie &
Miss Colleen*
