Ross-Hocking Extension Camp Association, Inc.

The Ross-Hocking Camp Association camps at Tar Hollow State Park Camp, which is situated on Pine Lake in the Tar Hollow State Forest, approximately 15 miles east of Chillicothe. The Association rents the entire resident camp area from the State of Ohio for five weeks. The 2024 dates will be June 8 through July 15. Potential employees should be available for work at all times during this period.

The camp has a central lodge for recreation and food services. The lodge can seat approximately 230 youth and staff. The kitchen will be operated by the Camp Board kitchen staff. Swimming is at a private beach with a shallow swimming area enclosed by a dock. Permanent lodging is provided for both male and female staff along with meals. A sick room and first aid station is available for the Camp Health Director. Campers are housed in 28 individual units that will accommodate seven campers and one counselor.

The counties in the Ross-Hocking Extension Camp Association are: Athens, Fairfield, Hocking, Pickaway and Ross. Questions can be addressed to the 4-H Youth Development Educators in the following counties:

- Joy Sharp – Pickaway County
- Kate Wells– Ross County
- Aubry Fowler & Leslie Cooksey – Fairfield County
- Bridget Moore – Athens County
- Kayla Nihiser – Hocking County
- Or Personnel Directors Kerry Young and Scott Sharp via email at TarHollow4HCamp@gmail.com

All applications should be returned to Kerry and Scott at TarHollow4HCamp@gmail.com.

Applications are to be submitted by March 1, 2024. A brief description of each position follows. For a full job description, please see the 4-H Camp Manual of the Association. Manuals are available at the Extension Offices of those counties in the Association.
