

WOMEN FOR THE LAND

VIRTUAL LEARNING CIRCLES

Nearly 301 million acres of U.S. land are now farmed or co-farmed by women and at least 87 million additional acres are in the hands of women landowners.

JOIN US online, Virtual Learning Circles and connect with other women landowners and resource professionals as we discuss incorporating soil health practices on your land. REGISTER HERE for one circle or all 6!

Brought to you by funds from the Great Lakes Restoration Initiative!

October Soil Health Virtual Learning Circles

October 7, 2pm—3:30 EST | Session 1—Soil Health Overview
Learn about the importance of soil, soil health terminology and general soil health practices.

October 21, 2pm - 3:30 EST | Session 2—Soil Health cont'd
Details of healthy vs. unhealthy soil, how to identify issues in your soil, and LIVE! soil health demos.

Future Sessions: November 4th, 18th & December 2nd, 16th

Sign in information will be sent after registration. If you have limited internet access and would prefer to participate in the learning circles via phone please contact Ashley Brucker, AFT Ohio Program Manager, (614) 696-6623

