

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY:

LITTLE FARMERS, NEW OHIO STATE FAIR EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

About Little Farmers

Help kids learn about agriculture at Little Farmers, an exciting new educational exhibit at the Ohio State Fair:

- Fun hands-on activities are geared toward kids ages 3-10.
- Eight different stations will be located in a single large outdoor area on the lawn northeast of the Voinovich Livestock & Trade Center allowing kids to explore different aspects of Ohio agriculture:
 - Start Barn
 - Garden
 - Grain Bin
 - Chicken Coop
 - Sheep Barn
 - Dairy Barn
 - Farmer's Market
 - Ohio Proud Market
- There are no real animals in this exhibit. Stations will feature simulated animals, real grains, planting and faux fruits and vegetables, and more.

Volunteer Opportunities

All volunteers get FREE Ohio State Fair admission for themselves and one guest if working at least one four-hour shift.

Who can volunteer?

Individuals or groups (such as 4-H clubs, FFA chapters, sponsors, organizations, and clubs) may volunteer. Volunteers must be at least 14 years old. You will be provided with:

- Button to wear indicating that you are a 4-H or FFA member
- Signage at the exhibit to recognize the name of your chapter/club

Where will I volunteer?

You can request to volunteer at the start barn, garden, grain bin, chicken coop, sheep barn, dairy barn, or farmer's market.

When?
