Greene County Master Gardener Volunteer Annual Plant Sale

The OSU Extension Greene County Master Gardener Volunteers are holding their annual spring plant sale in the Buckeye Room at the Greene County OSU Extension Office. The sale includes a variety of plants grown by the Master Gardener Volunteers.

There will be Master Gardener Volunteers to answer your gardening questions. Plants being sold include vegetables, herbs, perennials, natives, annuals, and succulents. In addition to plants there will be a selection of yard sale items specific to gardening -- tools, pots, yard art, etc.

Doors open at 11:00. Come early for the best selection!
