

Bake Sale Auction: Sealed Container Rules

All items entered in the 2022 Bake Sale Auction must be sealed in a container. The rules for sealed containers are below. Sealed containers are required by the Senior Fair Board and are intended to help keep everyone safe.

1. All entries in the Bake Sale Auction must be in a sealed container. Acceptable entries must be in a sealed bakery (cake) box that is taped shut, zip lock bag, or shrink wrapped.
2. Items in plastic (Saran) wrap or foil will NOT be accepted.
3. The container needs to be viewable, i.e., It must be possible for a person to see the baked item inside the container.
4. A sample of the baked item must be attached to the entry for judging. The sample must be in its own sealed container. Example: 1 cookie, a ½ slice of bread, small pie slice The sample must be out of the baked item, i.e, one of the 24 cookies, a slice of the cake, etc.
5. All entries for the Bake Sale table (i.e., Cloverbud entries) must be in small serving sizes in sealed containers. Example: 6 cookies, 4 – 6 brownies, ½ loaf of bread.
6. No item shall be on the fairgrounds without being in a sealed container.
7. ANY item not in a sealed container WILL NOT be accepted.

Bake Sale Auction: Sealed Container Rules

All items entered in the 2022 Bake Sale Auction must be sealed in a container. The rules for sealed containers are below. Sealed containers are required by the Senior Fair Board and are intended to help keep everyone safe.

1. All entries in the Bake Sale Auction must be in a sealed container. Acceptable entries must be in a sealed bakery (cake) box that is taped shut, zip lock bag, or shrink wrapped.
2. Items in plastic (Saran) wrap or foil will NOT be accepted.
3. The container needs to be viewable, i.e., It must be possible for a person to see the baked item inside the container.
4. A sample of the baked item must be attached to the entry for judging. The sample must be in its own sealed container. Example: 1 cookie, a ½ slice of bread, small pie slice The sample must be out of the baked item, i.e, one of the 24 cookies, a slice of the cake, etc.
5. All entries for the Bake Sale table (i.e., Cloverbud entries) must be in small serving sizes in sealed containers. Example: 6 cookies, 4 – 6 brownies, ½ loaf of bread.
6. No item shall be on the fairgrounds without being in a sealed container.
7. ANY item not in a sealed container WILL NOT be accepted.