

TUSCARAWAS COUNTY

2024 General Livestock Judging Contest

Contest is open to all 2024 4-H and FFA members, clubs, and chapters in Ohio.

1. All contestants will be limited to students enrolled in 4-H or FFA program over the state of Ohio.
2. There is a $15 entry fee charged per team (no more than $30 per county team/chapter), or $5 per individual entry. (Free to Tuscarawas County 4-H and FFA members.)
3. There will be a Junior Team & Individual (age 8-13) Division and Senior Team & Individual (age 14 & older) Division. Mixed teams (Junior & Senior) will compete in the Senior Division (age as of January 1).
4. A team will consist of at least 3 contestants but not more than 4. The three highest scores will determine the team score. Individual entries may compete for the individual awards.
5. While the contest is in progress, there shall be no communication – including cell phones – between contestants and anyone else, except the person in charge of the ring.
6. General livestock contest can consist of the following classes (subject to change depending on availability of livestock):
 - Market Steer
 - Beef Breeding Heifers
 - Feeder Calves
 - Market Lambs
 - Market Goats
