Ohio Crop Weather

November 13, 2018

Wet Conditions Stall Progress

Continued wet conditions and cooler temperatures throughout the week kept producers out of the fields, according to Cheryl Turner, State Statistician, USDA NASS, Ohio Field Office. There were 2.4 days suitable for fieldwork in Ohio during the week ending November 11. Very little harvesting or other fieldwork were completed last week. Some corn and soybeans were harvested despite saturated soil conditions. There were reports of muddy fields and some crop distress due to excess moisture. Lack of storage availability also stalled harvest. The average moisture content of corn harvested last week was 17 percent and the average for soybeans was 15 percent. Some tillage and manure management activities were underway.

Special Note:

NASS will be conducting our End-of-Season surveys on crops and hogs during the first two weeks in December. As farmers wrap up the 2018 growing season, NASS will conduct a series of surveys to determine final State and county acreage, yield, and production for crops, as well as grain storage capacity and grain stocks on hand. We are also asking pork producers about this year's farrowings, pig crop and current inventory. County level acreage, yield and production estimates are used by the Risk Management Agency to administer its crop insurance programs. All participating farmers should respond. Your information is important and helps ensure accurate results.
