

CHAMPAIGN COUNTY PRESENTS

West Central Ohio Hay Day

Please join Ohio State University Extension and Channell Equipment on July 6th for the West Central Ohio Hay Day. The day will begin at 10am with talks from Extension personnel on various aspects of growing, making, storing, and feeding quality hay. Insurance representatives will also be speaking on some new offerings available to hay and forage producers. Lunch will be provided by Fresh Harvest food truck and will be free for those registered by July 1 thanks to the support of our sponsors. The afternoon will be filled with equipment demonstrations from Krone and H&S company representatives. There will also be door prizes provided by generous donations from area vendors for those that register by July 1st.
