MACHINES Done Learning

Department of Art | The Ohio State University

Autumn 2022

Art & Technology
Exhibition of Student Work

It's the end of the semester. Put down your pencils and pass in your work. Turn off your computer, the Machines are Done Learning.

This exhibition presents student work from art and technology classes this autumn semester. We've trained the machines on our new ideas, our rough drafts, our revisions. Here's the final result.
