

Accreditation Readiness Snapshot

Ohio Local Public Health Accreditation Support Project

The following information highlights data from a multi-component accreditation readiness assessment conducted in February 2018. Data has been sorted into like groups in order for local health departments (LHDs) to compare readiness activities of those serving similar population size and county type (e.g. Appalachian, rural, urban, etc.).

This information has been created for LHDs with a "Very Large- Urban" designation (N=4). Data highlighted below reflects existing challenges and areas for improvement. Further analysis can be found within the Ohio Comprehensive Report and/or individual agencies work plan summaries if applicable.
