Korean Etiquette and Customs

By: Neal Myers, NCTA Ohio 2017
Topic: Korean Etiquette and Customs
Length: One-Day Lesson Plan

Overall theme of the lesson:

Students get the chance to learn the common etiquette and customs of the Korean culture by watching authentic videos, having class discussion and a planned activity where the students physically act, practice and perform the Korean cultural actions, i.e. bowing properly to others. (The students attending this lesson are already studying Mandarin Chinese at various capacities.) Students will be asked to write a short reflective essay about 5 things they have learned and the similarities and differences between the Korean culture and the Chinese culture (or the American culture for another option.) In discussions and essays, students are encouraged a free expression of their thoughts. Follow up lessons are suggested to review the most common customs, traditions along with some simple Korean phrases.

National World Language Standard(s) addressed by this lesson:
