

3. Foodie

South Campus Gateway, located on High Street between Chittenden and Ninth Avenues, features great eateries frequented by Ohio State students. Although not part of the campus dining plan, students spend their extra cash at spots like Eddie George's Grille 27, Five Guys, MadMex, Mark Pi's, Panera, Fusian Sushi and Coldstone Creamery. southcampusgateway.com

The North Market is a popular public market started in 1876 that features the food of locally grown businesses like Flavors of India, Hot Chicken Takeover, Hubert's Polish Kitchen, Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams, Nida's Sushi, Sarefino's Pizzeria and. Located three miles south of campus, the market is a short ride on the #2 COTA bus that runs along High Street. northmarket.com

Easton is the premier retail center in Ohio. The center includes scores of shops, including Nordstrom's, LL Bean, the American Girl Store, Crate & Barrel and Tiffany's. Locally based retailers like Abercrombie & Fitch and Victoria's Secret test new concepts here, and dining options include local favorites like Jeni's Ice Creams, Northstar Cafe and Brio Tuscan Grille.