Washington County Junior Fair Royalty Code of Conduct

Introduction Statement:

This Junior Fair Royalty Code of Conduct is to be followed by anyone who enters the Washington County Junior Fair Royalty Contest. As an applicant, you are a representative of Washington County's Junior Fair Program, which includes 4-H, FFA, FCCLA, Boy Scouts of America, and Girl Scouts. These organizations actively participate in the Barlow Independent, Washington County and Waterford Community Fairs.

Expectations of Junior Fair Royalty Candidates and Royalty Winners:

- Wear the given attire (hat/crown, sash/pin) when appropriate. (Attire may NOT be worn when exhibiting or selling livestock.)
- Conduct yourself in a courteous, respectful and professional manner.

➤ Dress appropriately at all times. (Inappropriate dress for females includes: spaghetti straps, strapless or off the shoulder dresses or tops, tube tops, clothing that exposes any part of the midriff or cleavage, old or worn looking jeans; dresses, skorts, skirts, shorts shorter than 4" above the knee; or undergarments showing. Males may not wear old or worn looking jeans, slacks or shorts, torn or holey shirts, clothing that expose midriff or underwear.) No flip-flops!

- Use appropriate language at all times.
- Represent Washington County's Junior Fair Program as a positive role model.
- Abide by the decisions of the Washington County Junior Fair Royalty Committee.

Examples of Behavior and Conduct NOT permitted – including, but not limited to:

- Inappropriate language and gestures
- Not participating in Fair events
- Blatant disrespect for adults, volunteers, staff and/or those who are in a leadership position
- Belittling others; putting others down and being disrespectful of individual differences
- Continual disregard of the Junior Fair Royalty Committee
- Inappropriate postings/pictures on social media (it may be reviewed)
- Other conduct determined to be inappropriate by the Junior Fair Royalty Committee

Actions that will be taken if violation(s) occur:

If any member of the Washington County Junior Fair Royalty Committee feels that any action taken by a Junior Fair Royalty representative is in violation of this Code of Conduct, that member may contact the other committee members to discuss what, if any, action should be taken. Actions may range from verbal warnings and discussions to removal of title, crown, sash, privileges and recognition.

Statement of Agreement for Candidate:

I have read the Junior Fair Royalty Contest Code of Conduct and agree to abide by it. I accept all consequences if I chose not to follow the Junior Fair Royalty Code of Conduct. If I am chosen as Washington County Junior Fair Royalty, I will follow all rules and regulations put forth by the Washington County Junior Fair Royalty Contest Committee and fulfill my duties as Washington County Junior Fair Royalty. Royalty responsibilities take precedence over other activities, the exception being my participation in Junior Fair shows and competitions.

WASHINGTON COUNTY JUNIOR FAIR ROYALTY SCHOLARSHIP RULES

In an effort to recognize the quality youth of Washington County, and to help those interested in furthering their education, the Waterford Community, Washington County and Barlow Independent Fairs have established the Washington County Junior Fair King and Queen Scholarships. The scholarship program will be effective for the county fair queens selected in 1995 and thereafter and the kings selected in 1999 and thereafter. This scholarship will be a one-time award to each eligible recipient in the amount of $500.

The purpose of this scholarship is to assist high school graduates who are continuing their education at any accredited college, university, or technical school in any course of study.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship will be awarded to the young adults chosen to be the Washington County Junior Fair King and Queen, who must meet all the selection criteria during his/her one-year reign.

The scholarship can be applied to educational expenses incurred at any accredited college, university, or technical school in any course of study.

To claim the Jr. Fair Royalty Scholarship, the recipient must submit evidence that:

- a) he/she has completed one year of full time instruction (as designated by the academic institution),
- b) he/she has maintained a G.P.A. of a C (2.0 on a 4.0 system), and
- c) he/she has completed the one year of full time instruction within two years of high school graduation.

Once this evidence has been received in the Washington County Office of the Ohio State University Extension, presentation of the funds can be made to the recipient.

FORFEITURE OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

Failure to continue his/her education after high school, failure to carry a full time set of classes, failure to maintain a C average and/or failure to complete the one year of full time classes within two years post-high school graduation will result in forfeiture of the scholarship.
