

Problem Statements

Tasks that require twisting: Design a product that aims to achieve opposite/twisting forces.

Tasks that require grasping objects: Design a product that allows for an object to be held and utilized at the same time; while using only one hand.

Tasks that require bilateral coordination: Design a bilateral product in a unilateral fashion.

Tasks that require precision movements: Design a product that simplifies complex, precision movements.