

KIRWAN WEEKLY FORUMS: SEPTEMBER 2018

Diversity & Access in the Latinx Community

12:00–1:15PM EVERY THURSDAY

#KirwanForums

SEP 6

Who Is the Sleeping Giant: A Snapshot of Latinx Diversity

Presented by: Yolanda Zepeda, Office of Diversity and Inclusion

SEP 13

Latino Affairs Commission: Who We Are and What We Do

Presented by: Lair Marin-Marcum, Ohio Latino Affairs Commission

SEP 20

The Demographic Imperative to Elevate Latinx Success

Presented by: Anne-Marie Nunez, Ohio State Department of Educational Studies

SEP 27

Latinx Placemaking in the Midwest: Where Cultural Expression Counters Social and Political Exclusion

Presented by: Theresa Delgadillo, Ohio State Department of Comparative Studies

The Kirwan Institute is located at 33 W. 11th Ave., just behind the High Street Panera Bread location and across from the Gateway. Admission is FREE. Food and refreshments will be available while they last. Forums take place in the first floor conference room.

KirwanInstitute.osu.edu/weeklyforum

FOR ACCOMMODATIONS ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY, PLEASE CONTACT ASHLEY WILSON AT (614) 292-4817 OR WILSON.1871@OSU.EDU