

Sustainability and Ohio Lands: Creating Value for People and the Environment

May 12, 2020

10 A.M. to 12 P.M. Keynotes and Roundtable Discussion

Three perspectives on Sustainability on Ohio's Landscape

- Dr. Elena Irwin, Professor, Faculty Director, OSU Sustainability Institute
- Chris Korleski, Director, Great Lakes National Program Office, US EPA
- Bill Stanley, State Director, The Nature Conservancy in Ohio

1 to 2 P.M. Sustainability in Ohio's Cities Panel

- Jeremy Brooks, Assistant Professor, OSU School of Natural Resources
- Walter Hibner, Ohio Government Affairs, Vectren/CenterPoint Energy Company
- Brandi Whetstone, Sustainability Officer, Mid-Ohio Regional Planning Commission (MORPC)

2:15 to 3:15 P.M. Sustainability on Ohio's Farmland Panel

- Ben Brown, AEDE Assistant Professor, Professional Practice in Agricultural Risk Management
- Mark Drewes, Owner, Drewes Farms, Wood County
- Casey Hoy, OSU's Kellogg Endowed Chair in Agricultural Ecosystem Management

3:30 to 4:30 P.M. Sustainability in Ohio's Forests

- Dan Balser, Director, Ohio Division of Forestry, Ohio Department of Natural Resources
- Jeremy Bruskotter, Professor, OSU School of Natural Resources
- Mark Ervin, Consulting Forester

