4-H GENERAL PROJECT JUDGING

Event Date: Tuesday, July 9, and Wednesday, July 10

Event Time: 3:00-7:00 p.m.

Event Location: 4-H Hall

Project Judging Information

General Rules:

1. 4-H General Project Judging will be held before the fair according to a schedule established by the Clermont County Extension Office. General Project Judging will be held on Tuesday, July 9, and Wednesday, July 10, at the Clermont County Fairgrounds
2. Clothing & Textiles, Creative Arts, Food & Nutrition, and Healthy Living projects will be judged on July 10, all other general projects will be judged on July 9, youth are required to register for an interview time.
3. Clothing & textile projects (including projects that do not require sewing), You Can Quilt, Quilting the Best Better, and the Writer must be turned in to the Extension Office by 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, July 9, for pre-judging.
4. All exhibits are to be as described in the 4-H project completion requirements.
5. To be eligible for county-level placing and awards, youth must participate in 4-H General Project judging prior to the Clermont County Fair.
6. County placings and Ohio State Fair delegates will be selected by the 4-H General Project judge and announced during the Winners' Circle Ceremony or 4-H Style Revue, held the Saturday before the fair.
7. Youth must receive a score of 70% or higher to be designated as a state fair delegate. Only youth completing a state fair-eligible project will qualify for this designation.
8. To be eligible for a fair pass and awards, projects must be on display in the 4-H Hall during fair week.
9. Projects must be checked-in on Thursday, July 18, between 3 p.m.-7 p.m.
10. Exhibits should include an educational display or poster. A project book does not qualify as a project display. The only exception to this rule will be for those completing a Food and Nutrition project. Exhibitors will exhibit their nutrition portfolio. No food can be displayed at the county fair.

11. Exhibits must be removed from the 4-H Hall between 3 p.m. – 4 p.m. on Saturday of fair week. Those who needed to remove projects earlier due to participation in the Ohio State Fair should contact the Extension Office for assistance to sign out the project.

Event Check-In Time: 9:30 a.m.

Judging Starts: 10:00 a.m.

Event Location: 4-H Hall

Awards Presentation: Saturday, July 20, at 2:30 p.m. (during the Winners' Circle Ceremony)

Communications Contest Registration

GENERAL RULES

1. A member who has given a talk or participated in the marketing division in the previous year is expected to give a new and different talk or present new and different marketing concepts the next year.

2. All work is to be original work created by the 4-H member(s) for 4-H.

PRESENTATION DIVISION RULES

1. Pre-registration must be submitted to the Ohio State University Extension Office by 4:00 p.m. the Monday before fair week.
2. A team presentation consists of two people sharing the speaking and teaching role. When members of a team fall into different age categories, they will participate in the older class.
3. Easels, a microphone, a table with/out mirror, a laptop computer, a screen, an LCD projector, and an extension cord will be available for use by participants.
4. All presentations will be given inside the 4-H Hall
5. Due to the limitations of the building's facilities, no large animals (i.e., horse, beef, sheep, goat, dairy, or hogs over 20 pounds) may be used in a 4-H presentation. Members should use models, photographs, or illustrations to make their point when giving a talk about large animals.
6. Any small animal (under 20 pounds) may be used in a 4-H presentation provided the animals do not place the public at risk and provided they meet all the health requirements established by the Ohio Department of Agriculture Livestock Health Requirements. Current health and shot records must be carried with the animal. Animals must remain caged or leashed before and after the presentation.
7. Members are expected to set up their presentation; however, there will be a judge's assistant available. A reasonable amount of time will be allotted for set up.
8. All presentations will be timed. Timing begins when the member begins to speak and ends following the conclusion. Questions and answers are not included in the official time.
9. Firearms, bows, arrows, weapons, air pistols or air rifles, paintball guns, gun cases, or any reasonable facsimile are not permitted to be used in a demonstration or illustrated talk. Plastic replicas are permissible, but caution is urged in the use of items that look truly authentic as they may create concerns with fair security and may not be permitted on the fairgrounds.
10. Members who use PowerPoint, Prezi, or other similar technology within an illustrated talk or demonstration should use the technology to supplement their delivery. The presentation may not consist solely of a pre-recorded narration. The member is required to provide a live delivery of the topic.
10. Members using computer programs such as PowerPoint or Prezi may bring their equipment to the Clermont County Fair. A laptop that operates on a Microsoft Windows-based program will be provided for the participant to use if needed. It will include a recent edition of PowerPoint. If you have other software programs, you should bring your laptop. Members may bring a USB flash drive to use on the provided equipment and should have knowledge of how to install the flash drive.
11. Members using technology that experiences computer glitches may, with permission of the judge, call upon outside assistance for technical help. Members are expected to be able to perform routine set-up and use of the equipment.
12. When members using technology experience an equipment failure or glitch that cannot be resolved in a reasonable time (two to three minutes), the judge may elect to move to the next presentation. The member will be given time to work out the technical problem off-stage and then re-schedule the presentation with the judge's assistant. If the member experiences a second failure, the presentation will be ended and evaluated accordingly.
13. Presenters should plan to arrive 15 minutes early to check in at the registration desk.

14. Presenters are encouraged to attend the Awards Ceremony, which will be held during the Winners' Circle Ceremony.
16. See specific class rules and schedules for additional information.

- Videos must be submitted on a DVD and must play using QuickTime Player or Windows Media Player.
- The member's name, age, and county must be neatly written on the DVD, along with the presentation title.
- Evaluation will be based on the quality and originality of the message, which should persuade the viewer to action, as well as on the creative and professional use of technology.
- By submitting an entry, you agree to allow counties and/or the state 4-H office to use the promotional video to promote 4-H throughout Ohio.

CLUB FLOWER DISPLAY CONTEST

Flower Display Check-In: Thursday, July 18, from 3:00-7:00 p.m. in the 4-H Hall

Award Presentation: Thursday, July 27, at 6:00 p.m. at Holman Livestock Complex (As part of the Skillathon and Outstanding Exhibitor Awards Presentation)

Grant's Farm & Greenhouses is again donating all of the annual flowers you need to create your fair planters for the Club Flower Display Contest. Feel free to stop by the farm (5552 Bucktown Rd.) or the garden center (2115 S.R. 131) any time during business hours to pick out any annuals you need (flats, 6-packs, 4"pots, or 11" baskets)! Just tell the cashier at checkout that it's for 4-H. All 4-H Clubs are encouraged to participate in the 4-H Club Flower Display Contest.

General Rules:

1. Clubs are responsible for taking care of their flower displays throughout the week.
2. Plants must be planted inside the container. It is recommended that packing peanuts or an empty milk jug be placed in the bottom of the container then filled with soil to reduce weight.
3. Containers must be easily moved. Containers will be displayed at the entryway of buildings and barns around the fairgrounds.
4. Flower containers should be the work of club members.
5. The club name must be visibly displayed on the flower container.
6. The fair theme should be incorporated into the overall design.
7. Flower containers must be turned in to the Extension Office between 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. Thursday, before fair. Displays must be placed and finished by 7pm. Judging can take place anytime from 7pm, Thursday before fair until the Wednesday of fair.

8. Flower displays will be judged on originality/creativity, overall design and incorporation of the fair theme. Awards will be given for first to fifth place as well as individual honors for the Most Creative, Most Colorful and Best 4-H Design. Designs turned in late will not be judged.

2024 Fair theme is...175 years of making memories and keeping traditions alive.

Recipe Template:

<https://u.osu.edu/extensionclermont/files/2022/05/Bake-It-Recipe-Template.pdf>

General Rules

1. Junior entries are open to any youth 5 years of age to 18 years of age as of January 1 of the current year. The contest will be judged on merit only with ribbons as prizes.
2. To qualify, the entry must be the work of the youth from start to finish, without help from an adult. This includes reading and following the recipe, measuring, mixing, baking, etc. Suggestion: Do practices before the fair, teaching the youth how to make the item and providing any needed help. This will instill confidence so that when they are ready to bake for the fair, they will not need adult help.
3. Any youth who wishes to compete for premiums or have his/her item auctioned may do so by buying a season pass from the Senior Fair Board and following the same rules as adult exhibitors. Again, the junior exhibitor must completely make these entries.
4. Participants may enter multiple categories; however, only one entry per category will be accepted.
5. All baked goods must be made from scratch unless specified. Boxed cake mixes or Styrofoam forms may be used for Cake Decorating classes. Boxed cake mix may be used for Cupcake Decorating classes.

6. Recipes must be typed in the Bake-It contest recipe card template, printed on 8.5" x 11" paper, and attached to the participant's entry. The fillable recipe card template can be found at <https://u.osu.edu/extensionclermont/files/2022/05/Bake-It-Recipe-Template.pdf>.
7. Only products that may be safely stored at room temperature may be entered. All eggs must be cooked. Cream Cheese may not be used in any icing. Pies requiring refrigeration (i.e.: custard, cream) will not be accepted. Bread machine entries will not be accepted.
8. All items brought to judging must be brought in a disposable container. All items must be covered.
9. Cake decorating classes will be judged according to the current year's fair theme.
10. Awards will be given for one overall Best of Show and first, second, and third prize in the following categories:

Division 1 – youth ages 5-8 (as of January 1 of the current year)

- Class 1 – Cupcake Decorating (eight cupcakes; judged on appearance only)
