

2020 Ohio Mass Spectrometry and Metabolomics Symposium

October 7 & 8, 2020 | Blackwell Inn

The 4th Annual Ohio Mass Spectrometry and Metabolomics Symposium will be held at the Blackwell Inn in Columbus, Ohio, on October 7-8, 2020. This joint meeting of the 17th Annual Ohio Mass Spectrometry Symposium and 4th Annual Conference on Food and Nutritional Metabolomics will be co-hosted by the OSU Campus Chemical Instrument Center and Foods for Health.

The purpose of the two-day event is to provide an opportunity for academic and industrial researchers in the region to present their findings, share information, discuss research challenges with colleagues, and spark new collaborations in the rapidly advancing fields of mass spectrometry and metabolomics. The planned agenda includes: workshops; invited keynote and plenary speakers; oral, poster and flash talk presentations (submitted abstracts); evening reception; Lunch and Learn sessions; and networking sessions. We anticipate 200-250 participants.

Benefits of sponsorship

As a sponsor, your brand will be presented to researchers and students with interests in mass spectrometry, metabolomics, and Foods for Health research. Opportunities for networking, sharing of information, and student career and intern recruitment will benefit all involved.
