Northwest Ohio Poultry Clinic

Date: Tuesday April 30, 2024

Time: 6-8p Location: Emporium at One-Thirty

Address: 130 E. Clinton St. Napoleon, OH 43545

The Henry County Extension Program is happy to announce Dr. Tim McDermott, DVM of the Ohio State University will be joining us to share his wealth of knowledge.

This educational opportunity will count as Quality Assurance for Poultry Exhibitors.

Dr. McDermott serves as the OSU Extension Educator for Agriculture & Natural Resources in Hocking County. He graduated from the Ohio State University in 1996, spent time in a private veterinary practice in Franklin County for more than 20 years. Please leave your project animal at home as this is an educational presentation.
