

Announcing a New Resource for School Counselors, Teachers, Social Workers, Psychologists, Nurses, & Administrators – and those who train them!

Juhnke, G. A., Granello, D. H., & Granello, P. F. (2011). Suicide, self-injury, and violence in the schools: Assessment, prevention, and intervention strategies. Los Angeles: Wiley.

- Essential reading for anyone who recognizes the increasing mental health problems in our nation's schools - and wants to make a difference!
- Clear practical, hands-on information by nationally-known experts in suicide and violence prevention
- Specific strategies and resources
- An entire chapter with strategies to work with students who self-injure
- Guidance on conducting face-to-face interviews to assess potentially violent students
- Clear steps for psychological first aid for victims of violence and their families
- Content and strategies for classroom-based prevention programming and school-wide screening programs
- Lots of information in an easy-to-read and easy-to-implement format!

Table of Contents

1. Suicide in Children & Adolescents
2. School-Based Suicide Prevention Programming
3. Working with Suicidal Students in Schools: Assessment and Intervention
4. Working with Students who Engage in Non-Suicidal Self-Inflicted Injury (NSSI)
5. After a Suicide: Postvention in the School Environment
6. Utilizing Face-to-Face Clinical Interviews with Violent and Potentially Violent Students & Their Families
7. Using a Systems of Care Approach with Post Violent and Potentially Violent Students
8. Utilizing Psychological First Aid When Responding to School Violence Survivors & Their Parents
9. Adapted Solution Focused Survivors-Parents Debriefing Model
10. Ethical and Legal Issues
11. Preparedness, Checklist Template, & Promising Future Interventions

Go to Amazon.com for copies
For desk or review copies, visit www.wiley.com