We are standing at the letter A. A stands for Appreciate.

Take a moment to use all your senses and notice what’s around you in the Peace Garden! Some of our favorite things to appreciate about this space include:

- the feeling of the coarse gravel beneath your feet
- the warmth of the sun on your face
- the sweet smell and vibrant colors of the flowers
- the refreshing breeze or misty fog
- the melodic sound of birds singing

Did you notice the Peace Pole? Let’s take a moment to appreciate this global symbol of unity, peace, and diversity. Each Peace Pole bears the message "May Peace Prevail on Earth" in different languages on each of its sides. There are over 250,000 Peace Poles in every country in the world dedicated as monuments to peace.

Try using all 5 senses as you make your way to our next stop— the USF Gratitude Rock Garden, located between Gleeson Library and Harney Science.
