

University Resources & Confidentiality Options for Students

University employees have different abilities to maintain confidentiality upon receiving a report of sexual assault, sexual abuse, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking (referred to here as “sexual misconduct”). For a complete summary of information regarding the University’s response to reports of sexual misconduct and a complete list of resources, please see the Policy on Harassment, Discrimination and Sexual Misconduct.

Confidential Resources

Confidential resources are available to provide support, resources, and information to students. These individuals do not share identifying information about people or incidents without the student’s consent.

To reach the Sexual Assault Dean-on-Call (SADoC), call the University of Chicago Police Department at 773.702.8181 and ask for the SADoC to be paged. They are available 24/7, 365 days a year to answer questions about sexual misconduct including questions about Title IX, University policy and processes (including the University’s disciplinary processes), resources and support services, filing a report with local law enforcement, or obtaining medical assistance.

Individuals with Title IX Reporting Responsibilities

University employees not designated as confidential resources are considered Individuals with Title IX Reporting Responsibilities. Individuals with Title IX Reporting Responsibilities must report all incidents of sexual assault, sexual abuse, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking (referred to here as “sexual misconduct”) to the Title IX Coordinators.

Individuals with Title IX Reporting Responsibilities cannot guarantee confidentiality, but will treat information as privately as possible.

Individuals with Title IX Reporting Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, faculty and instructors, Resident Assistants, Resident Heads, Resident Deans, TAs, deans of students, athletic coaches, UCPD staff, and all other University staff.

Please note that staff at the University of Chicago Medicine’s Emergency Room are not considered University of Chicago employees. However, state law requires hospital emergency room staff to notify the local police department and a community victim advocate when treating an individual who reports a sexual assault. The individual has the option on whether or not to speak to those personnel.

Title IX Resources

Director, Office for Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Support and Deputy Title IX Coordinator for Students

Renae DeSautel

desautel@uchicago.edu

773.702.0438

Please contact Renae to raise concerns, receive information regarding University policy and processes, or to request support/resources (including academic, housing, financial, or other accommodations for students).

Associate Provost for Equal Opportunity Programs and Title IX Coordinator for the University

Bridget Collier

bcollier@uchicago.edu

773.834.6367

Please contact Bridget to raise concerns, receive support/resources, or to file a complaint regarding a faculty member, post-doc, other academic appointee, or staff member under the University Policy on Harassment, Discrimination, and Sexual Misconduct, or for general questions regarding this policy or Title IX.

Reporting an incident to the Title IX Coordinator(s) is private, and does not mean the student who experienced the incident somehow loses control of the process. The Title IX Coordinator(s) informs students of options regarding accommodations, interim measures, and the University’s disciplinary processes. Students can choose not to move forward with the University’s disciplinary processes, but still receive support services. In some instances the Title IX Coordinator(s) may need to move forward with an investigation based on information already received. If this happens the student will be notified.
