

Jordyn Schor

jorschor@sas.upenn.edu | +1.516.637.1967 | 808 S Michigan Ave #1107, Chicago, IL 60605 | 13 Ann Court, Plainview, NY 11803

WORK EXPERIENCE

Booth School of Business - University of Chicago - Center for Decision Research, Chicago, IL

Research Professional

August 2020 - Present

Performing qualitative and quantitative research on projects in behavioral economics, social psychology, and judgment and decision making. Responsibilities include experimental planning and design, data analysis and visualization, manuscript editing, and administrative tasks.

Wharton School of Business - University of Pennsylvania - Behavior Change for Good Initiative, Philadelphia, PA

Research Assistant

August 2019 – August 2020

BCFG leverages insights from social psychology and consumer behavior to create large-scale field studies and A/B tests to promote positive behavior changes in health, savings, and education sectors. Responsibilities included data analysis, survey creation, and program piloting.

Wharton School of Business - University of Pennsylvania - Operations, Information and Decisions Dept., Philadelphia, PA

Research Assistant

June 2018 – June 2020

Provided support to graduate and post-doctoral students on a range of projects related to topics such as trust, negotiations, deception, and emotion; designed and worked as a confederate in field studies, conducted literature reviews, manuscript editing, behavioral coding; and study creation and piloting.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, Philadelphia, PA

May 2020

The College of Arts & Sciences, Bachelor of Arts, Psychology (Major, Honors Program)

Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society

The Wharton School of Business, Statistics (Minor)

Summa Cum Laude (GPA: 3.85/4.00)

Senior Thesis (August 2019 – May 2020)

Conducted an original, independent study: “Moral Judgments of Engaging with the Work of Transgressors”, advised by Dr. Geoff Goodwin. Received the following:

- Milstein Family Undergraduate Research Grant
- Mind Center for Outreach, Research, and Education (MindCORE) Grant
- John P. Sabini Undergraduate Award for the Study of Emotion, Character, and Responsibility, from the Department of Psychology

Relevant Coursework:

- Psychology: Social Psychology; Judgment and Decision-Making; Gender and Organization; Neuroscience and Society; The Science of Behavior Change; Positive Psychology, Cognitive Science; Enhancing the Human Mind Through Technology; Quantum Physics and Consciousness; Mindfulness and Human Development.
- Statistics: Introductory Statistics I and II; Probability Theory; Social Statistics; Sample Survey Design; Data Analysis & Statistical Computing; Experiments for Business Decision Making.

Co-Curricular Activities: Wharton Undergraduate Consulting Club, Penn Undergraduate Psychology Society, Penn Undergraduate One for the World, Penn Society for International Development, and West Philadelphia Tutoring Project.

Stockholm School of Economics, Stockholm, Sweden

January – May 2019

Abroad exchange program taking courses in Organizational Behavior, Public Policy, Social Cognition, and Swedish Language.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Patatamba and Watata, Peru

July 2016

Volunteer: Activities included building and installing stoves and greenhouses, and tutoring children in English.

Memphis, TN

June 2014 – August 2014

Volunteer: Activities included working at community gardens, food banks, community centers, senior citizens homes, and tutoring at local schools.

SKILLS

PERSONAL

R, Excel, Stata, SPSS, Qualtrics, PPT

Astronomy, mindfulness, travel