Student Profile

Ariadne Souroutzidis is a second-year GPHAP student from Booth. Prior to business school, she worked in healthcare analytics and global health. Last summer, she worked at Amgen on the market strategy for a drug being developed in Phase 2 clinical trials. She joined GPHAP to connect with students from other programs to have a more holistic perspective on the healthcare industry and ways to improve it. She is also the author of these newsletters, so if any other students would like to be profiled or have events to share please email her at ariadne@chicagobooth.edu.

Tuesday, Jan 14: Improving the Public's Health: A Conversation about Leadership with Dr. Leana Wen

Dr. Leana Wen is an emergency physician, public health leader, and a passionate advocate for patient-centered health care reform. The author of the critically-acclaimed book, When Doctors Don't Listen, her TED talk on transparency in medicine has been viewed nearly 2 million times. In 2019, Dr. Wen was named one of TIME 100's Most Influential People.

Dr. Wen is currently a Visiting Professor of Health Policy and Management at the George Washington University School of Public Health, where she is also the Distinguished Fellow at the Fitzhugh Mullan Institute of Health Workforce Equity. She has served as President/CEO of the Planned Parenthood Federation of America. As the first physician to lead Planned Parenthood in nearly 50 years, Dr. Wen's worked to expand comprehensive healthcare for vulnerable women and families. Previously, she was the Health Commissioner for the City of Baltimore, where she led the nation's oldest continuously operating health department in the U.S. to fight the opioid epidemic, treat violence and racism as public health issues, and improve maternal and child health.

Moderator: Dr. Leonard Marcus. Lecturer on Public Health Practice and founding Director of the Program for Health Care Negotiation and Conflict Resolution at the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health

Wednesday, Jan 22: AHRQ Webcast: Understanding CAHPS Surveys: A Primer for New Users

This AHRQ webcast will provide an overview of CAHPS surveys and explain how they focus on patients' priorities and build on current research in survey development and administration. Consumer Assessment of Healthcare Providers and Systems (CAHPS®) surveys ask consumers about their experiences with health care. The CAHPS program at the U.S. Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) supports the development and promotion of CAHPS surveys, instructional materials, and databases, and provides technical assistance to users. Speakers will also discuss the ways in which organizations are using survey results.

Speakers:

- Caren Ginsberg, Ph.D., (Speaker) Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, Rockville, MD
- Dale Shaller, M.P.A., (Speaker) Shaller Consulting Group, Stillwater, MN
- Stephanie Fry, (Moderator and Speaker) Westat, Rockville, MD

Thursday, Jan 30, 2020: Struggles and Strategies for Survival Beyond the Walls of Jail

In this webinar Louie Diaz, a substance use disorder counselor and re-entry specialist with the Middlesex County Sheriff's Office, will share his own story of substance use disorder and incarceration as well as the work he is doing in the cities of Lowell and Lawrence, Massachusetts to address the addiction crisis. He will discuss what it was like to be followed by a film crew for 5 years as this documentary was being made. He will also share why this film is important as we begin to treat substance use disorder as a public health issue instead of a law enforcement issue.
