Student Spotlight - Brian Goodell

Brian Goodell is a third year law student from a suburb of Boston Massachusetts. Prior to law school, Brian worked at a hospital software company, Epic, where he was tasked with helping UC-Davis roll out new claims software. Brian's other healthcare experience comes from working at Partner's healthcare in Boston and working on Medicaid policy advocacy for Legal Services of Eastern Missouri. In his spare time, Brian enjoys rock climbing, playing ultimate Frisbee, and hanging out with his dog, Clover.

Oct 31, 2019: The Chicago Forum for Justice in Health Policy: Health Reform Impacts, Challenges, and the Future

Health reform often seems like a moving target. While the 2020 election heats up, the future of healthcare and health insurance remains a major debate. Meanwhile, the U.S.'s ongoing legacy of injustice both causes and exacerbates health inequities and violations of human rights. Many patients still struggle to access high-quality, affordable healthcare and hundreds of thousands of Illinoisans remain uninsured. Join us for a conversation on the impacts of recent—and the potential future of—health reform.
