Call for Proposals: Quern Fellowship

The Quern Fellowship application deadline is this Friday, April 16, 2021.

The application process is a two-part process. 1) Letter of Intent where you tell us your idea, and then 2) if invited, you would prepare a Part 2 where you go into more detail and provide a Letter of Recommendation.

If you want to learn more about the experience of last summer's Quern Fellows, here is the link to the Erikson and Quern Fellowship information session.

Topic: Erikson/Quern Information Session (recorded Feb 22, 2021)

"Chicago Department of Public Health Commissioner Dr. Allison Arwady joins us to answer these questions and more, kicking off MATTER's latest event series, Advancing Health Equity. The series aims to unravel the various forms of inequities affecting our healthcare system today and explore the role that innovation and technology can play in shaping a more equitable future. Future discussions will follow two tracks: resilient communities and inclusive technology."

Thurs. April 15th 11:00AM CT – Register Here

Navigating a Shifting Health Care Landscape "A virtual patient safety forum live from Massachusetts"

"Risky Business is a unique conference with a simple premise: Learn from thought leaders in other industries and high-risk endeavors to improve the quality and safety of health care. This is more critical now than ever, at a time when nearly every industry has had to adapt and innovate due to COVID-19. Their stories are sure to inspire and spark meaningful conversations about how to move forward."

"This event is a collaboration of the Betsy Lehman Center for Patient Safety, Boston Children's Hospital, and CRICO: The Risk Management Foundation of the Harvard Medical Institutions, in partnership with Dana Farber Cancer Institute, Massachusetts General Hospital, Massachusetts Health & Hospital Association, and Massachusetts Medical Society."

Thurs. April 22nd 10:00–11:30AM CT Register Here

MATTER presents "Sustainability in Healthcare"

"Sustainability expert and Green Innovation Group A/S CEO Frederik van Deurs will highlight some of the most significant green technological advancements of recent times, the challenges we're facing as a global society and how health innovation can be leveraged as a powerful tool to achieve global drawdown of greenhouse gases."

Thurs. April 29th 5:30–7:00PM CT – RSVP HERE

Social Change in Practice by Camara Phyllis Jones, MD PhD

Epidemics of Injustice is a course that is free and open to the public. Each course meeting takes place from 5:30 – 7:00 p.m. CT. Sign up for as many lectures and action labs as you would like. Please note action labs generally require collaborative activity for the entire 90 minute session.
