Resources

One of the things we like to do with the GPHAP Weekly Digest is feature organizations in the health care field you may not have known about so you can follow them if you want to. Here is a great list of resources shared by The National Center for Complex Health & Social Needs, which highlights reports and research from other great organizations in the field:

A patient-centered complex care research agenda — Center for Health Care Strategies

Medicaid managed care's pandemic pivot: Addressing social determinants of health to improve health equity — Institute for Medicaid Innovation

The economic burden of mental health inequities in the United States — Satcher Health Leadership Institute at Morehouse School of Medicine

Connecting community health centers & courts to improve behavioral health of people & communities — National Center for Medical Legal Partnership

Allowing people on benefits to gain economic security — Corporation for Supportive Housing

Understanding patients' interest in assistance with social risks identified in health care settings — SIREN, in American Journal of Preventative Care

Intensive care management of a complex Medicaid population: A randomized evaluation — Mass General Brigham and Commonwealth Care Alliance, in American Journal of Managed Care
