Student Spotlight - Tyler Easley

Tyler Easley is in his third and final year at the Law School. Prior to going to law school at UChicago, Tyler went to Vanderbilt and received his bachelor's in Medicine, Health & Society which gave him an interdisciplinary approach to medicine. During his undergraduate academic career, he had the opportunity to participate in the Future Public Health Leaders Program at

Epidemic of Injustice

University of Illinois Chicago has recorded lectures about public health justice. Topics include abortion access & the Pink Tax, climate change, food justice, and more! To listen to the recordings, click here. Watching a lecture and writing a 250-word reflection will count as a co-curricular.

Save the Date

Save the date for Tuesday, April 25th to meet and mingle with GPHAP students and alumni! The reception will be held at Smith & Wollensky restaurant in downtown Chicago in the Bridgeview Room from 5:30 PM - 7:30 PM.

Erikson Fellowship Application

The due date for Erikson Fellowship applications is March 31st. Please refer to the email Laura Botwinick sent on February 24th for more information!

Michigan Medicine. His current interests at the Law School are Toxic Torts and Product Liability.

GPHAP piqued Tyler's interest to continue applying an interdisciplinary approach to medicine and healthcare. With GPHAP's focus on multiple disciplinary perspectives Tyler learns more about the real-life implications of healthcare and not solely through a legal lens.

When not studying for the bar, Tyler can be found reading poems by bell hooks while sipping on his favorite bourbon!
