498	001505	The Case of Mr. Critic	Documentary	Political Science	Progress & Development	Our achievements since Independence are great enough to sustain our faith in our country's future. Some of these are the river valley projects, the irrigation schemes, the production locomotives and aircraft. But there are some people who decry every new idea and scheme. This film shows the damage caused by loose and irresponsible talk and highlights the need for active participation in the building up of our country.	English	1954	11.23	B&W	Ravi Prakash	Cinematography - Dara Mistry, Sound - P. K. Vishwanath, Editing - U. K. Wadke, Music - V. Shirali, Commentary Word & Spoken - Berkeley Hill.
499	001506	Good Manners	Documentary	Education	Civic Education	A nation's culture is a measure of its maturity. Culture, however are a living reality and our daily lives reflect in how we behave towards one another. This film approaches this subject and emphasises the need for consideration of others, which is the best foundation for good manners.	English	1954	10.33	B&W	Bhaskar Rao	Cinematography - S. N. 1780	003041	NR0884 - A	News Coverages / Reels	News Coverage	Indian News Review	News from the front: The Indian army had a magnificent feat of arms against Pakistani aggression. Pakistan launched its misadventure with a planned infiltration of raiders across the ceasefire line in Kashmir in early August. Pakistan cross the international border between India and west Pakistan on 1st September. Now this onslaught is in shambles. The tank and air supported Pakistan drive to Akhnoor was halted by the jawans in the Indian Air Force. Indian forces cross into west Pakistan towards Lahore. From Jammu another defensive move was launched in the Sialkot region. Destroying Pakistan armor, Indian forces throw the enemy completely off balance. Subedar Mohammed Suleiman of the famed Baluchistan regiment surrenders to the Indian troops with his 19 men. The outstanding feature of the Indian success is the destruction of nearly 300 Pakistani tanks. In the fighting as a whole the Indian Air force is playing a tremendous part and Indian airmen have nearly paralyzed the Pakistani air force. It is proved again that aggression never pays.	English	1965	5.00	B&W	Not Available	Cinematography - Sound - Editing - Music - Script - Commentary Word - Commentary Spoken - Artist - Animator - Graphic -

1782	003043	NR0885 - A	News Coverages / Reels	News Coverage	Indian News Review	News from the Front: In the Lahore sector Indian soldiers has put the Pakistan military on the defensive. They move forward to Burki on the way to Lahore. The Pakistan army blows up a bridge at Hudiana but the Indian soldiers advance further steadily. Elsewhere in the Lahore sector, the Indian soldiers are achieving their objectives one after the other and Pakistanis are regrouping their forces. URI-Poonch Linked: In the Uri-Poonch sector Indian soldiers stormed one Pakistani position after another to establish a linkup between Uri and Poonch. Soldiers advancing from the Haji Peer paas join those coming from Poonch. The Kashmir valley has now great security because the Uri-Poonch linkup cuts off one of the major routes of Pakistani infiltration. All over the Uri-Poonch area the tri-colour burns India's heart. Reckless Bombing by Pakistan: A Pakistan jet recklessly bombs civilian life in Jammu. This is Pakistani strategy now indiscriminate bombing from Jammu to Rajasthan. They bomb a bus stand in Firozpur, Punjab. A 1000 pound bomb is found unexploded in a village near Judhiana. Avenging such attacks, the Indian soldiers have shot down such Pakistani aircrafts near Jalandhar and Ludhiana. Mal village near Amritsar is another civilian target for Pakistan and this is in sharp contrast to India's respect to civilian areas of Pakistan.	English	1965	7.31	B&W	Not Available	Cinematography - Sound - Editing - Music - Script - Commentary Word - Commentary Spoken - Artist - Animator - Graphic -
