ANNOUNCEMENTS

Student Assembly Members—come to tonight's meeting; it is urgent that your unit designate a substitute if you cannot attend. The Princeton Plan to declare a College holiday before the November elections so that students may campaign, will be considered.

Two Peace candidates, Joe Duffy for Senator in Connecticut and Gerry Studds for Representative from Mass. district 17, need workers now. Room and board are free. Please come in to Chapin 21 or call 2420 and Volunteer.

Research and Information needs volunteers Wed. and Thurs. nights to fold and collate copies of the Issue Information Handbook to come out Friday. Please come in and sign up in Chapin 205; good working conditions.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Student Assembly Bulletings will no longer be posted, starting with the next issue. Copies may be obtained at the Converse Info.
Desk, the Strike Central Info. Table at Chapin 17, or at the Valentine Info. Tables between East and West.

The Information and Research Handbook, Consider: These are the Days..., has been published and is available between East and West during Lunch and Dinner. Although copies are free to all students and faculty, a contribution of $.25 a copy to cover costs would be greatly appreciated.

Summer Political Action (21 Chapin) now has copies of the Hatfield -McGovern petition and lists of approved candidates; come in and pick 'em up. Also, if you can, please help out Duffey in Conn.
and Studs in Mass.; volunteer at the office or by calling 2420.

Students interested in researching the local migrant worker situation over the summer, please contact Harry Laracuente (3251) or Franco Garcia (3001). The study will involve work with the men in the fields, so a speaking knowledge of Spanish is important. Come to 22 Chapin today at 2:00 P.M. and talk about it.

Want to bring co-education to Amherst? Come to a short meeting on tactics today at 9:45 A.M. in the Babbott Room.
