FORM: Writings should be submitted without any instructor's comments. The student's name and the student's ID number should not appear anywhere in the text or on a title page. Submissions should be typed, and the pages should be numbered. In the case of researched writing, papers should follow appropriate style and format conventions.

COLLABORATION: Collaborative writing is acceptable in all categories. Collaborators should include a brief statement describing their process of composition.

PERMISSION TO PUBLISH: In submitting a text to any contest, you are giving permission for your work to be published on the Campus Writing & Communication Coordinator website or in a print publication.

The writing I am submitting for this award is my own work.

Student Signature _____ Date _____

I am familiar with the writing of the student who is submitting an entry to this competition. To the best of my knowledge, the writing submitted is the work of this student.
