

HONORS STUDENTS

Intern in Washington, D.C. or Sacramento

- UCI encourages honors students to intern in D.C. or Sacramento

- ❖ Internships available for ALL MAJORS!
- ❖ Gain hands-on experience in your major or future career
- ❖ Network and make valuable connections
- ❖ Become more competitive for the job market or grad school

- Concerned about graduating on time?

- ❖ Earn UC credit on academic programs
- ❖ Internships fulfill major requirements for certain majors (e.g. Social Ecology Field Study, Public Health Practicum, and more!)
- ❖ Courses can fulfill degree requirements for some majors
- ❖ If courses aren't available in your major, careful planning can keep you on track. Consider taking summer classes or an extra quarter – the long-term benefits you'll gain are worth it!

- Think you can't afford it?

- ❖ Costs are comparable to attending UCI
- ❖ Financial aid applies on academic programs
- ❖ Special scholarships are available
- ❖ A limited number of internships are paid, and while not ideal, it is possible to work part-time.

For more info:

Washington, D.C. (UCDC)	Sacramento
Academic (Fall, Winter Spring): dcenter.uci.edu	Academic (Fall, Winter Spring, Summer): uccs.ucdavis.edu
Summer (non-academic): ucdc.uci.edu	Summer (non-academic): statecap.uci.edu

Visit us in 1100 Student Services II, next to the CHP office.