

	Excellent (2)	Good (1)	Unacceptable (0)
Citation	Full citation given, including authors, journal, year, volume and page numbers in an APA format	Citation is given but is missing elements or is only a link to a website	Citation is not given
Article	The article is from the primary literature.	The article is from a popular press publication.	The article is from a website not the primary literature
Topic	The topic is directly related to the course material	The topic is related to the material, but connections to course material are lacking	The topic is not related to the course material
Understanding of article	The summary provides a concise description of the methods and main findings of the article. It is not a laundry list and is not a rewrite of the abstract.	The summary provides a decent description of the methods and findings. Some information is lacking and the findings are presented as a laundry list. The abstract is copied too much.	There does not seem to be an understanding of the material, the methods and results are not clearly presented. The abstract is copied too much.
Grammar and mechanics	There are no grammar or spelling mistakes, the summary is clearly written and has an organization.	There are some grammar or spelling mistakes, the clarity and organization of the summary could be improved	There are too many grammar and or spelling mistakes to distract from reading the summary. The clarity and organization make the summary illegible.