

CATERING WITH A CAUSE

DoughBoyz is a breakfast catering start up serving the Worcester community. The DoughCart (Pictured on front page) is sustainably designed to run on electricity and drive the mission for social justice in the Worcester community.

As DoughBoyz begins to learn and grow, we want to share our values outright with our customers and the public. Building a more inclusive and culturally responsible society is a group effort, and we hope to work with you all in striving to achieve this.

OUR STORY

Justin Amevor, the founder and director of DoughBoyz, grew up attending school in Worcester, Massachusetts. During his freshman year as an undergraduate at Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI), Justin met Ahmed, Jordan, and Gabriel, who helped bring DoughBoyz to life. Jordan had come up with the name, Ahmed helped make deliveries, and Gabriel kept track of the finances. In its infancy, DoughBoyz served a hot and fresh shortstack of three pancakes and a cold drink straight to the dorm rooms of fellow students; all of course with excellent service! Justin's dream of ending world hunger has led DoughBoyz to think, "How can I make a bigger difference?"

"To improve the quality of life for all people, especially those affected by social inequality, by offering sustainable solutions to global issues."

Community Breakfast Events

Community Breakfasts are events where DoughBoyz brings together the community to help those in need. We prepare fresh, hot meals and deliver them to nearby shelters and the local residents facing homelessness. These are our strides to help end hunger.
